This is not an official publication of the law. It is merely a guide to the law. It provides, in summary form, only the basic, not an exhaustive, list of requirements for holding state or county office in Georgia. A person seeking the requirements for a particular office should consult the Official Code of Georgia Annotated to read in their entirety the constitutional provisions and Code sections cited in this publication and should examine the index to the Code for possible additional requirements for holding a particular state or county elective or appointed office.

Preface

Qualifications and Disqualifications for Holding State or County Elective Office in Georgia was first published in 1969 at the request of the Secretary of State and has been revised several times since that date. The publication has been helpful to persons interested in running for elective public office, to those conducting elections, and to other state officials.

The 1999 and 2013 revisions of Qualifications and Disqualifications for Holding State or County Elective Office in Georgia were prepared by Betty J. Hudson, J.D., and Christine Kuykendall, J.D., legal research associates, and Ellen W. Smith, legal research assistant, Applied Research and Publications Division, Carl Vinson Institute of Government. The 1987 revision was prepared by Paul T. Hardy, J.D., a legal research associate in the Institute's Governmental Research and Services Division. The 1986 version of this publication was prepared by Kenneth A. Duke, legal research specialist, under the general supervision of J. Devereaux Weeks, J.D., legal research associate, also of the Governmental Research and Services Division.

Appreciation is expressed to Linda Beazley, director, Elections Division, Office of the Secretary of State, for her assistance in reviewing the manuscript for this revision.

Persons utilizing this book are cautioned that the laws briefly summarized and cited in this document are complex and lengthy and overlap in several areas. The user should recognize and understand that this book provides, in summary form, only the basic, not an exhaustive, list of requirements for holding state and county offices in Georgia. Anyone seeking the requirements for a particular office should consult the Official Code of Georgia Annotated to read in their entirety the constitutional provisions and Code sections cited in this publication and should examine the index to the O.C.G.A. for possible additional requirements for holding a particular state or county elective or appointed office.

Introduction

At the request of the Secretary of State, this publication has been prepared as a basic guide for persons desiring to hold state or county office or the office of United States Senator or Representative, and for election officials assisting such persons.

The book briefly summarizes the basic qualifications and disqualifications found in the Georgia Constitution, the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, and the United States Constitution for holding the United States offices of Senator and Representative, state and county elective offices, and certain appointed offices. Following the summaries are citations to the constitutional and statutory provisions summarized. Selected state and federal court decisions and opinions of the Georgia Attorney General interpreting these constitutional and statutory provisions are also included. “Georgia Constitution” citations refer to the Constitution of the State of Georgia, 1983 (Vol. 2 of the Official Code of Georgia Annotated); and “O.C.G.A.” citations refer to the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, published by Lexis Law Publishing, Charlottesville, Virginia.

The summaries relating to each elective office are organized under the general headings of Qualifications, Term of Office and Election, Bond Requirements, Oath of Office, Vacancies in and Succession to Office, and General Disqualifications. For those appointed offices included here, the summaries refer to the Term of Office and Appointment of that office. “Notes” or “annotations” follow a number of the summaries and their citations. Notes provide supplementary information about the summarized constitutional or statutory provision. Annotations are abstracts of Georgia and federal court decisions and Georgia Attorney General opinions interpreting the summarized constitutional or statutory provisions. The reader is cautioned that Georgia Attorney General opinions are not laws, and the courts are not controlled by them. Nevertheless, they should be considered high legal authority on problems that have not been addressed by the courts.

This 2013 revision contains amendments enacted in the regular 2013 session of the Georgia General Assembly.

Term of Office and Election

4. Term of office is six years. Elected by the people of the state. The electors must have the qualifications requisite for the electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature. Two Senators are elected from the state.

GOVERNOR

Qualifications

1. Must have been a citizen of the United States for 15 years.
2. Must have been a legal resident of Georgia for six years immediately preceding the election.
3. Must have attained the age of 30 years by the date of assuming office.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 4

Term of Office and Election

4. Term of office is four years and until a successor is chosen and qualified. Persons holding the office of Governor may succeed themselves for one four-year term of office. Persons who have held the office of Governor and have succeeded themselves cannot be elected to that office until after the expiration of four years from the conclusion of their term as Governor.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 1

Annotation:

The phrase “until his successor shall be chosen and qualified,” has a recognized and definite meaning. The time in excess of the four-year period which a Governor may be required to serve is a part of his constitutional term. His installation in office is for a term embracing not only the four years mentioned, but such additional time as may be required for his successor to be chosen and qualified. Thompson v. Talmadge, 201 Ga. 867, 41 S.E.2d 883 (1947).

5. The election for Governor shall be held quadrennially (every four years) on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November next preceding the expiration of the term of office unless another date be fixed by the General Assembly, and the Governor-Elect shall be installed in office at the next session of the General Assembly.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 2
O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-9, 45-12-1

6. The election shall be held at the places of holding general elections in the several counties of the state, in the manner prescribed for the election of members of the General Assembly, and the electors shall be the same.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 2

Annotation:

It is settled in this state and in many other jurisdictions of this country that an election is absolutely void when not held in the proper time and place and by persons qualified to hold it. Davis v. Page, 217 Ga. 751, 125 S.E.2d 60 (1962).

7. A candidate for Governor must pay a qualification fee or file a pauper’s affidavit.

O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-131, 21-2-132, 21-2-153

Annotations:

- i. If a candidate is unable to pay required qualifying fee, candidate may execute a pauper's affidavit in lieu of qualifying fee and be afforded the opportunity to run. Op. Atty. Gen. 72-48. See Georgia Socialist Workers Party v. Fortson, 315 F. Supp. 1035 (N.D. Ga. 1970).
- ii. A candidate for the final half of an unexpired term must pay the full qualification fee just as if he or she were running for a full term. Op. Atty. Gen. U70-77.
- iii. For the purpose of computing qualifying fee, only the salary which the law provides for the office directly involved should be included and not the additional compensation paid for the ex-officio position held by the incumbent. Op. Atty. Gen. 70-53.
- iv. An elected official cannot rely on payment of an incorrectly advertised qualifying fee to compel the governing authority to compensate the elected official beyond the salary permitted by statute. Rowland v. Tattnall County, 260 Ga. 109, 390 S.E. 2d 217 (1990).

8. In the event that a candidate pays his or her qualifying fee with a check that is subsequently returned for insufficient funds, the Secretary of State shall automatically find that such candidate has not met the qualifications for holding the office being sought, unless the bank, credit union, or other financial institution returning the check certifies in writing by an officer's or director's oath that the bank, credit union, or financial institution erred in returning the check.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5 (d)

9. Eligibility of write-in candidate:
- a. No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a special or general primary, a special or general primary runoff, or in a special or general election runoff.
 - b. No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a general or special election if such person was a candidate for nomination or election to the same office in the immediately preceding primary.
 - c. No person elected on a write-in vote shall be eligible to hold office unless notice of his or her intention of candidacy was filed and published no earlier than January 1 and no later than the Tuesday after the first Monday in September prior to the election in the case of a general election or at least 20 or more days prior to a special election. In a state general or no later than seven days after the close of the special election qualifying period for a special election. In a general special election of county officers,
 - i. notice must be filed with the Secretary of State and published in a paper of general circulation in the state by the person giving notice of intention to be a write-in candidate or by some other person or group of persons qualified to vote in the subject election; and
 - ii. a copy of the notice as published and an affidavit that the notice has been published, including the name of the newspaper and date of publication, must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than the fifth day after the deadline for filing and publishing such notice.

Ga. Const. Art. 2, § 2, ¶ 3
 O.C.G.A. § 21-2-133

10. No person shall be nominated, nor shall any person be a candidate in a primary, election, or special election for more than one of the following public offices to be filled at any one election or special election: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State School Superintendent, Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Labor, United States Senator or Representative in Congress, Public Service Commissioner, Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, judge of superior court, district attorney, any elected county officer, and any elected municipal officer.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-136

11. No person shall be nominated or elected who has been adjudged a “subversive person,” as defined in the Sedition and Subversive Activities Act of 1953.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-7

Oath of Office

12. The Governor-Elect shall, before he or she enters on the duties of office, take the following oath in the presence of the General Assembly in joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives: “I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully execute the office of Governor of the State of Georgia and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution thereof and the Constitution of the United States.”

Ga. Const. 5, § 1, ¶ 6
O.C.G.A. § 45-12-4

Vacancies in and Succession to Office

15. All elected or appointed offices are deemed vacant upon the incumbent's;
 - a. death or resignation;
 - b. ceasing to be a resident of the state, county, or district from which elected;
 - c. failing to obtain commissions or give bond within the time prescribed by law; or abandoning the office or ceasing to perform its duties.

O.C.G.A. § 45-5-1

16. In case of the death, resignation, or permanent disability of the Governor or the Governor-Elect, the Lieutenant Governor or Lieutenant Governor-Elect, upon becoming the Lieutenant Governor, becomes the Governor until a successor is elected and qualified. A successor to serve for the unexpired term shall be elected at the next general election; but if such death, resignation, or permanent disability occurs within 30 days of the next general election or if the term will expire within 90 days after the next general election, the Lieutenant Governor becomes Governor for the unexpired term.

Ga. Const. 5, § 1, ¶ 5(b)

Annotations:

- iii. *The Lieutenant Governor, who does not want to become candidate for the unexpired term of Governor, is not required to resign his or her office after having served as acting Governor. - iv. Governor's absence from state does not constitute "disability" under this paragraph. Op. Atty. Gen 67-293.
- v. Upon a petition of any of the four elected constitutional executive officers to the Supreme Court of Georgia that another elected constitutional executive officer is unable to perform the duties of office because of a physical or mental disability, the Supreme Court shall by appropriate rule provide for a speedy and public hearing on such matter, including notice of the nature and cause of the accusation, process for obtaining witnesses, and the assistance of counsel. Evidence at such hearing shall include testimony from not fewer than three qualified physicians in private practice, one of whom must be a psychiatrist.

General Disqualifications

17. The following persons are ineligible to hold any civil office, and the existence of any of the following acts shall be a sufficient reason for vacating any office held by such person, but the acts of such person, while holding a commission, shall be valid as the acts of an officer de facto, namely:
- a. Persons who are not citizens of this state and persons under the age of 21 years, provided, however, that upon passage of appropriate ordinances, citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified and who are 18 years old shall be eligible to hold any county or municipal office, other than a judicial office.
 - b. Persons who are the holders of public funds who have refused or failed to account for and pay over such funds to the proper officer.
 - c. Persons holding any office of profit or trust under the government of the United States other than that of postmaster and officers and enlisted persons of the armed forces. Membership on any federal commission, panel, or other fact-finding or policy-making agency, where the appointment is temporary and the duties do not interfere materially with the person's duties as a public officer, shall not bar any person from holding office in this state or acceding to a state office.
 - d. Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
 - e. Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.
 - f. Persons who have been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude, unless that person's civil rights have been restored and at least 10 years have elapsed from the date of the completion of the sentence without a subsequent conviction of another felony involving moral turpitude.

Note:

Each candidate is required to file an affidavit which states that he or she is eligible to hold the office for which he or she is running. See O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-132(e), 21-2-153(e).

 - vi. Any citizen and taxpayer of a community or the state may challenge qualifications of public officials to hold office in that community or the state. Such a person has standing to bring a quo warranto action claiming that a public official is ineligible to hold the office. Highsmith v. Clark 245 Ga. 158, 264 S.E.2d 1 (1980).
 - vii. A potential candidate who completed his sentence for conviction of a felony prior to the enactment of the 1990 amendment to this paragraph did not have any vested rights to seek office. Constitutional amendment prescribing ineligibility to hold office for 10 years after the completion of the sentence applies retroactively. Eligibility to hold public office is determined by the statutory and constitutional requirements in effect on the date of election. McIntyre v. Miller, 236 Ga. 578, 436 S.E.2d 2 (1993).

 - ix. The 1990 constitutional amendment does not preempt the enforcement of other qualifications for office that may provide for the temporary suspension from office where no felony conviction exists. Eaves v. Harris, 258 Ga. 1, 364 S.E.2d 854 (1988).

- xiii. A candidate who registers to vote only after his or her qualification for office and the closing of the qualifications process is not legally qualified to run for office. Op. Atty. Gen. U92-14.

18. Suspension and removal from office upon felony indictment or conviction:

- a. Upon indictment for a felony by a grand jury of this state, which felony relates to the performance or activities of the indicted official, the state constitution provides a means by which such official may be suspended, with pay, pending the final disposition of the case or until the expiration of the official's term of office, whichever occurs first.
- b. Upon initial conviction for any felony in a trial court of this state or the United States, the convicted official shall be immediately and without further action suspended from office without pay.
- c. Upon final conviction of a felony, the office shall be vacated immediately without further action. Said vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided by law for filling vacancies in such office caused by death or resignation.

O.C.G.A. § 45-5-2

19. It is unlawful for the officers of the executive branch of the state government to accept or hold office or employment in the legislative or judicial branches of the state government.

O.C.G.A. § 16-10-9 (a) (3)

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Qualifications

1. Must have been a citizen of the United States for 15 years.
2. Must have been a legal resident of Georgia for six years immediately preceding the election.
3. Must have attained the age of 30 years by the date of assuming office.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 4

Annotations:

- i. The requirement that the Lieutenant Governor must have attained age of 30 years when he or she assumes office is constitutionally valid. The Lieutenant Governor may be called upon to exercise powers of the office of Governor and, therefore, the similar maturity requirement for Lieutenant Governor is reasonable. Traylor v. Democratic Party of Georgia, 241 Ga. 429, 246 S.E.2d 192 (1978).
- ii. In a suit seeking to declare a Governor ineligible to hold the office of Lieutenant Governor, it was held that the two offices are separate and distinct. The state constitution does not prohibit one ineligible for the office of Governor for ensuing four-year term from being eligible to hold office of Lieutenant Governor for the same term. Smith v. Maddox, 227 Ga. 198, 179 S.E.2d 745 (1971); Henderson v. Maddox, 227 Ga. 195, 179 S.E. 2d 770 (1971).

Term of Office and Election

4. Term of office is four years and until a successor is chosen and qualified.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 3; Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 1

5. Lieutenant Governor is elected at the same time, for the same term, and in the same manner as the Governor.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 3

6. The election for Lieutenant Governor shall be held quadrennially (every four years) on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November next preceding the expiration of the term of office unless another date be fixed by the General Assembly, and the Lieutenant Governor-Elect shall be installed in office at the next session of the General Assembly.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 2

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-9

7. The election shall be held at the places of holding general elections in the several counties of the state, in the manner prescribed for the election of members of the General Assembly, and the electors shall be the same.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 2

Annotation:

It is settled in this state and in many other jurisdictions of this country that an election is absolutely void when not held in the proper time and place and by persons qualified to hold it. Davis v. Page, 217 Ga. 751, 125 S.E.2d 60 (1962).

8. A candidate for Lieutenant Governor must pay a qualification fee or file a pauper's affidavit.
O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-131, 21-2-132, 21-2-153

Annotations:

- i. If a candidate is unable to pay required qualifying fee, candidate may execute a pauper's affidavit in lieu of qualifying fee and be afforded the opportunity to run. Op. Atty. Gen. 72-48. See Georgia Socialist Workers Party v. Fortson, 315 F. Supp. 1035 (N.D. Ga. 1970).
 - ii. A candidate for the final half of an unexpired term must pay the full qualification fee just as if he or she were running for a full term. Op. Atty. Gen. U70-77.
 - iii. For the purpose of computing qualifying fee, only the salary which the law provides for the office directly involved should be included and not the additional compensation paid for the ex-officio position held by the incumbent. Op. Atty. Gen. 70-53.
 - iv. An elected official cannot rely on payment of an incorrectly advertised qualifying fee to compel the governing authority to compensate the elected official beyond the salary permitted by statute. Rowland v. Tattnall County, 260 Ga. 109, 390 S.E. 2d 217 (1990).
9. In the event that a candidate pays his or her qualifying fee with a check that is subsequently returned for insufficient funds, the Secretary of State shall automatically find that such candidate has not met the qualifications for holding the office being sought, unless the bank, credit union, or other financial institution returning the check certifies in writing by an officer's or director's oath that the bank, credit union, or financial institution erred in returning the check.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5 (d)

10. Eligibility of write-in candidate:

- a. No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a special or general primary, a special or general primary runoff, or in a special or general election runoff.
- b. No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a general or special election if such person was a candidate for nomination or election to the same office in the immediately preceding primary. c) No person elected on a write-in vote shall be eligible to hold office unless notice of his or her intention of candidacy was filed and published no earlier than January 1 and no later than the Tuesday after the first Monday in September prior to the election in the case of a general election or at least 20 or more days prior to a special election. In a state general or no later than seven days after the close of the special election qualifying period for a special election. In a general special election of county officers,
 - i. notice must be filed with the Secretary of State and published in a paper of general circulation in the state by the person giving notice of intention to be a write-in candidate or by some other person or group of persons qualified to vote in the subject election; and
 - ii. a copy of the notice as published and an affidavit that the notice has been published, including the name of the newspaper and date of publication, must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than the fifth day after the deadline for filing and publishing such notice.

Ga. Const. Art. 2, § 2, ¶ 3
O.C.G.A. § 21-2-133

11. No person shall be nominated, nor shall any person be a candidate in a primary, election, or special election for more than one of the following public offices to be filled at any one election or special election: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State School Superintendent, Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Labor, United States Senator or Representative in Congress, Public Service Commissioner, Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, judge of superior court, district attorney, any elected county officer, and any elected municipal officer.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-136

12. No person shall be nominated or elected who has been adjudged a “subversive person,” as defined in the Sedition and Subversive Activities Act of 1953.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-7

13. In case of the temporary disability of the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall exercise the powers and duties of the Governor and receive the same compensation as the Governor until such time as the temporary disability of the Governor ends.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 5 (a)

Oath of Office

14. The Lieutenant Governor-Elect shall, before he or she enters on the duties of office, take the following oath in the presence of the General Assembly in joint session of the Senate and House of Representatives:

“I do solemnly swear or affirm that I will faithfully execute the office of Lieutenant Governor of the State of Georgia and will, to the best of my ability, preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution thereof and the Constitution of the United States.”

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 1, ¶ 6

O.C.G.A. § 45-12-4

Cross-Reference:

Any public officer who willfully and intentionally violates the terms of his or her oath as prescribed by law shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by imprisonment for not less than one nor more than five years.

O.C.G.A. §16-10-1

15. Every public officer must take the oath of office and any oath prescribed by the Constitution of Georgia and must swear that he or she
 - a. is not the holder of any unaccounted for public money due this state;
 - b. is not the holder of any office of trust under the government of the United States, any other state, or any foreign state which he or she is by the laws of the State of Georgia prohibited from holding;
 - c. is otherwise qualified to hold said office according to the constitution and laws of Georgia; and
 - d. will support the constitutions of the United States and of this state.

O.C.G.A. § 45-3-1

Note:

The official acts of an officer are valid regardless of his or her omission to take and file the oath, except in cases where so specially declared. See O.C.G.A. § 45-3-10.

16. A loyalty oath, which must state that such person will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Georgia and is not a member of the Communist Party, is also required for all elected officers of this state.

O.C.G.A. §§ 45-3-11, 45-3-12, 45-3-13

Annotations:

- i. See Georgia Conference of Am. Ass'n. of University Professors v. Bd. of Regents of University System of Ga., 246 F.Supp. 553 (N.D. Ga 1965), limiting the coverage of the loyalty oath.
- ii. *The portion of the Georgia loyalty oath which requires one to swear to support the constitutions of Georgia and the United States is valid, and that portion of the oath which requires disavowal of membership in the Communist Party is unconstitutional and should not be administered. Vacancies in and Succession to Office

17. In case of vacancy by resignation, death, or otherwise, the successor shall be appointed by the Governor or elected only for the remainder of the unexpired term.

Ga. Const. Art. 5, § 2, ¶ 8
O.C.G.A. § 45-5-3

18. All elected or appointed offices are deemed vacant upon the incumbent's
- a. death or resignation;
 - b. ceasing to be a resident of the state, county, or district from which elected;
 - c. failing to obtain commissions or give bond within the time prescribed by law; or abandoning the office or ceasing to perform its duties.

Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, the officer or body authorized to fill the vacancy or call for an election to fill the vacancy shall do so without the necessity of a judicial determination that a vacancy has occurred.

O.C.G.A. § 45-5-1

19. Vacancy resulting when Lieutenant Governor serves as Governor:
- a. In case of the death, resignation, or permanent disability of the Governor or the Governor-Elect, the Lieutenant Governor or the Lieutenant Governor-Elect, upon becoming the Lieutenant Governor, becomes the Governor until a successor is elected and qualified. A successor to serve for the unexpired term shall be elected at the next general election; but, if such death, resignation, or permanent disability occurs within 30 days of the next general election or if the term will expire within 90 days after the next general election, the Lieutenant Governor becomes Governor for the unexpired term.
 - b. No person shall be elected or appointed to the office of the Lieutenant Governor for the unexpired term in the event the Lieutenant Governor shall become Governor.

Annotations:

- i. The voluntary resignation of the Governor immediately imposes upon the Lieutenant Governor the duties of Governor. The Lieutenant Governor is then entitled to perform all duties and exercise all authority of Governor. Thompson v. Talmadge, 201 Ga. 867, 41 S.E.2d 883 (1947).

- iii. The Lieutenant Governor, who does not want to become candidate for unexpired term of Governor, is not required to resign his or her office after having served as acting Governor. He may continue to serve as Lieutenant Governor until the four-year term to which he or she was elected expires. Op. Atty. Gen. 1948- 49, p. 403.
- iv. The Governor’s absence from the state does not constitute “disability” under this paragraph. Op. Atty. Gen. 67-293.
- v. The Lieutenant Governor does not succeed to the office of Governor in the event of a vacancy. Rather, the executive power devolves upon the Lieutenant Governor so that the state government can continue to function until a Governor is chosen by the people as provided by law. Henderson v. Maddox, 227 Ga. 195, 179 S.E. 2d 770 (1971).

18. The following persons are ineligible to hold any civil office, and the existence of any of the following acts shall be a sufficient reason for vacating any office held by such person, but the acts of such person, while holding a commission, shall be valid as the acts of an officer de facto, namely:
- Persons who are not citizens of this state and persons under the age of 21 years, provided, however, that upon passage of appropriate ordinances, citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified and who are 18 years old shall be eligible to hold any county or municipal office, other than a judicial office.

Membership on any federal commission, panel, or other fact-finding or policy-making agency, where the appointment is temporary and the duties do not interfere materially with the person's duties as a public officer, shall not bar any person from holding office in this state or acceding to a state office.

- d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
 - e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.
 - f) Persons who have been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude, unless that person's civil rights have been restored and at least 10 years have elapsed from the date of the completion of the sentence without a subsequent conviction of another felony involving moral turpitude.

 - Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.

- b) Upon initial conviction for any felony in a trial court of this state or the United States, the convicted judge shall be immediately and without further action suspended from office without pay.

4. Must reside in the geographical area in which selected to serve.

Term of Office and Election

Ga. Const. Art. 6, § 7, ¶ 1
O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-138, 15-6- 4.1

Annotations:

- i. The omission of the phrase “until his successor is qualified” in the 1983 Constitution does not prevent a legally qualified incumbent from remaining in office after his or her four-year term of office ends. Garcia v. Miller, 261 Ga. 531; 408 S.E. 2d 97 (1991).*
- ii. There is no constitutional or statutory bar to continuing to serve as judge of the state court until the effective date of resignation from that office, notwithstanding having taken the oath of office of judge of the superior court a few days before that term of office was to begin. Carey Canada, Inc. v. Hinely, 181 Ga. App. 364; 352 S.E. 2d. 398 (1986).*
- iii. An appointee to fill a vacancy occurring in a superior or state court judgeship will serve* until January 1 following the next general election which is more than six months after the date of the person's appointment, at which time the appointee will be required to run for a new four-year term of office regardless of the time remaining in the original term of office. Op. Atty. Gen. 86-31.

iv. The designation of a magistrate to preside over a trial cloaked the magistrate with statutory and constitutional authority to exercise judicial power of the superior court, but did not make him a superior court judge. Consequently, a magistrate's designation to preside in superior court did not violate the constitutional requirements that superior court judges be elected. Massey v. State, 265 Ga. 632; 458 S.E. 2d 818 (1995).

7. Elected in the general election held on the Tuesday following the first Monday in November in each even-numbered year preceding the expiration of the term of office.

It is settled in this state and in many other jurisdictions of this country that an election is absolutely void when not held in the proper time and place and by persons qualified to hold it. Davis v. Page, 217 Ga. 751, 125 S.E.2d 60 (1962).

8. A candidate for judge of superior court must pay a qualification fee or file a pauper's affidavit.

Annotations:

i. If a candidate is unable to pay required qualifying fee, candidate may execute a pauper's affidavit in lieu of qualifying fee and be afforded the opportunity to run. Op. Atty. Gen. 72-48. See Georgia Socialist Workers Party v. Fortson, 315 F. Supp. 1035 (N.D. Ga. 1970).

ii. A candidate for the final half of an unexpired term must pay the full qualification fee just as if he or she were running for a full term. Op. Atty. Gen. U70-77.

iii. For the purposes of computing qualifying fee, only the salary which the law provides for the office directly involved should be included and not the additional compensation paid for the ex-officio position held by the incumbent. Op. Atty. Gen. 70-53.

iv. An elected official cannot rely on payment of an incorrectly advertised qualifying fee to compel the governing authority to compensate the elected official beyond the salary permitted by statute. Rowland v. Tattnall County, 260 Ga. 109, 390 S.E. 2d 217 (1990).

9. In the event that a candidate pays his or her qualifying fee with a check that is subsequently returned for insufficient funds, the Secretary of State shall automatically find that such candidate has not met the qualifications for holding the office being sought, unless the bank, credit union, or other financial institution returning the check certifies in writing by an officer's or director's oath that the bank, credit union, or financial institution erred in returning the check.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5 (d)

10. Eligibility of write-in candidate:

a) No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a special or general primary, a special or general primary runoff, or in a special or general election runoff.

b) No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a general or special election if such person was a candidate for nomination or election to the same office in the immediately preceding primary.

In a state general or no later than seven days after the close of the special election qualifying period for a special election. In a general special election of county officers,
- i. notice must be filed with the Secretary of State and published in a paper of general circulation in the state by the person giving notice of intention to be a write-in candidate or by some other person or group of persons qualified to vote in the subject election; and
 - ii. a copy of the notice as published and an affidavit that the notice has been published, including the name of the newspaper and date of publication, must be filed with the Secretary of State not later than the fifth day after the deadline for filing and publishing such notice.

Annotations:

- i. A person who is admitted to practice law but never registered or paid any license fee to the State Bar of Georgia until "right before" he entered the election for the office of district attorney, does not meet the requirements of having practiced for three years immediately preceding his election. No person can legally practice law without first registering and paying the license fee. Wallace v. Wallace, 225 Ga. 102, 166 S.E.2d 718 (1969).
- ii. The specific language requiring admission to practice "in the superior courts" means the superior courts of Georgia and not practice in courts of similar jurisdiction in the other states. Whitmer v. Thurman, 241 Ga. 569, 247 S.E.2d 104 (1978).
- iii. The requirement that the district attorney must have three years' experience of active practice of law before taking office does not deny equal protection of law to one who could not qualify under the requirement. Nathan v. Smith, 230 Ga. 612, 198 S.E.2d 509 (1973).
- iv. A third year law student who serves as a legal assistant to a district attorney pursuant to O.C.G.A. § 15-18-22 does not thereby become "duly admitted and licensed to practice law in the superior courts" for the purpose of determining eligibility to the office of district attorney. Op. Atty. Gen. 76 -28.

Term of Office and Election

7.  - ii. A candidate for the final half of an unexpired term must pay the full qualification fee just as if he or she were running for a full term. Op. Atty. Gen. U70-77.
 - iii. For the purpose of computing qualifying fee, only the salary which the law provides for the office directly involved should be included and not the additional compensation paid for the ex-officio position held by the incumbent. Op. Atty. Gen. 70-53.
 - iv. An elected official cannot rely on payment of an incorrectly advertised qualifying fee to compel the governing authority to compensate the elected official beyond the salary permitted by statute. Rowland v. Tattnall County, 260 Ga. 109, 390 S.E. 2d 217 (1990).
9. In the event that a candidate pays his or her qualifying fee with a check that is subsequently returned for insufficient funds, the Secretary of State shall automatically find that such candidate has not met the qualifications for holding the office being sought, unless the bank, credit union, or other financial institution returning the check certifies in writing by an officer's or director's oath that the bank, credit union, or financial institution erred in returning the check.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-5 (d)

- a) Persons who are not citizens of this state and persons under the age of 21 years, provided, however, that upon passage of appropriate ordinances, citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified and who are 18 years old shall be eligible to hold any county or municipal office, other than a judicial office.

 - d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
 - e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.

Cross-Reference:

“Public office” means every federal, state, county, and municipal office to which persons can be elected by a vote of the electors under the laws of this state or under the respective municipal charters, except the office of soil and water conservation officer. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-2 (30).

Note:

Each candidate is required to file an affidavit which states that he or she is eligible to hold the office for which he or she is running. See O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-132 (e), 21-2-153 (e).

Annotations:

- i. *To prevent persons convicted of certain crimes from holding office, the “conviction” must be a final one. There is no “conviction” within the constitutional provision if jury’s verdict has been set aside or is under review and thus subject to be set aside either by motion for new trial, bill of exceptions, or other appropriate procedures. - ix. The 1990 constitutional amendment does not preempt the enforcement of other qualifications for office that may provide for the temporary suspension from office where no felony conviction exists. Eaves v. Harris, 258 Ga. 1, 364 S.E.2d 854 (1988).

- xiii. A candidate who registers to vote only after his or her qualification for office and the closing of the qualifications process is not legally qualified to run for office. Op. Atty. Gen. U92-14.

23. Suspension and removal from office upon felony indictment or conviction:

- a) Upon indictment for a felony by a grand jury of this state, which felony relates to the performance or activities of the indicted official, state law provides a means by which such official may be suspended, with pay, pending the final disposition of the case or until the expiration of the official's term of office, whichever occurs first.
- b) Upon initial conviction for any felony in a trial court of this state or the United States, the convicted official shall be immediately and without further action suspended from office without pay.

O.C.G.A. § 45-4-1

18. During the term of the judge of the probate court, if the judge of the superior court determines that the bond is insufficient or the security insolvent, it shall be his or her duty to require other security. On failure of the judge of the probate court to comply with the order, a vacancy shall be declared as if the judge of the probate court had failed to give security in the first instance.

O.C.G.A. § 15-9-9

19. The office of probate judge shall be vacated upon failure to give bond within the time prescribed. No official acts shall be performed until the bond is approved and filed as required.

24. All elected or appointed offices are deemed vacant upon the incumbent's
- a) death or resignation;
 - b) ceasing to be a resident of the state, county, or district from which elected;
 - c) failing to obtain commissions or give bond within the time prescribed by law; or abandoning the office or ceasing to perform its duties.

Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, the officer or body authorized to fill the vacancy or call for an election to fill the vacancy shall do so without the necessity of a judicial determination that a vacancy has occurred.

O.C.G.A. § 45-5-1

General Disqualifications

28. The following persons are ineligible to hold any civil office, and the existence of any of the following acts shall be a sufficient reason for vacating any office held by such person, but the acts of such person, while holding a commission, shall be valid as the acts of an officer de facto, namely:
- a) Persons who are not citizens of this state and persons under the age of 21 years, provided, however, that upon passage of appropriate ordinances, citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified and who are 18 years old shall be eligible to hold any county or municipal office, other than a judicial office.
 - b) Persons who are the holders of public funds who have refused or failed to account for and pay over such funds to the proper officer.
 - c) Persons holding any office of profit or trust under the government of the United States other than that of postmaster and officers and enlisted persons of the armed forces. Membership on any federal commission, panel, or other fact-finding or policy-making agency, where the appointment is temporary and the duties do not interfere materially with the person's duties as a public officer, shall not bar any person from holding office in this state or acceding to a state office.
 - d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
 - e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.

 - g) Persons who have been convicted and sentenced in any court of competent jurisdiction for fraudulent violation of primary or election laws or malfeasance in office unless such person's civil rights have been restored.
 - h) Persons who are constitutionally disqualified for any cause.

"Public office" means every federal, state, county, and municipal office to which persons can be elected by a vote of the electors under the laws of this state or under the respective municipal charters, except the office of soil and water conservation officer. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-2 (30).

Note:

Each candidate is required to file an affidavit which states that he or she is eligible to hold the office for which he or she is running. See O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-132 (e), 21-2-153 (e).

Annotations:

- b) After initial conviction by the trial court, the judge shall not be entitled to receive compensation from his or her office. For the duration of the suspension, the Governor shall appoint a replacement judge.

SHERIFF

Qualifications

1. Must have been a resident of the county for at least two years immediately preceding the date of qualifying for election to the office.

O.C.G.A. § 15-16-1 (c) (1) (B)

Annotation:

The residency requirement refers to domicile. There must be either the tacit or explicit intention to change one's domicile before one can change his legal residence. If a person leaves the place of his domicile temporarily, or for a particular purpose, and does not take up an actual residence elsewhere with the avowed intention of making a change in his domicile, he will not be considered as having changed his domicile. Haggard v. Graham, 142 Ga. App. 498, 236 S.E.2d 92 (1977).

2. Must be a registered voter and have attained the age of at least 25 at the time of qualifying as a candidate.
3. Must have obtained a high school diploma or its recognized equivalent in educational training as established by the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council.
4. Must be a citizen of the United States.
5. Must not have been convicted of a felony offense or any offense involving moral turpitude contrary to the laws of this state, or any other state, or the United States, provided, however, that a plea of nolo contendere to a felony offense or any offense involving moral turpitude contrary to the laws of this state shall have the same effect as a plea of guilty, thereby disqualifying such a person from holding the office of sheriff.
6. Must be fingerprinted and have a search made of local, state, and national fingerprint files to disclose any criminal record, which fingerprints are to be taken under the direction of the judge of the probate court, and must be taken on or before, but no later than, the close of business on the third business day following the close of such qualification period.
7. Must give a complete written history of his or her places of residence for a period of six years immediately preceding the qualification date, giving house number or RFD number, street, city, county, and state as well as a complete written history of his or her places of employment for a period of six years immediately preceding the qualification date, giving period of time employed, and name and address of employer.

O.C.G.A. § 15-16-1 (c) (1)

Note:

The requirements of O.C.G.A. § 15-16-1 (c) (1) (D)-(F), (H)-(J) shall be deemed to have been met by any person currently serving as a duly qualified and elected sheriff of one of the several counties of this state.

Annotations:

- i. The requirement that the candidate for sheriff have a high school diploma or its equivalent does not violate equal protection. There is a reasonable basis for a minimum education requirement stated by reference to an objective standard. The requirement does not unduly burden either the candidate or the voter. It is reasonably necessary to accomplish a* legitimate state objective. Goforth v. Poythress, 638 F.2d 27 (5th Cir. 1981).

The court found that it was the intention of the General Assembly to prohibit a convicted felon from running for the office of sheriff even though he has been pardoned. Barbour v. Democratic Executive Committee of Crawford County, 246 Ga. 193, 269 S.E.2d 433 (1980). Also see Op. Atty. Gen. 80-56.*

8. Each candidate for the office of sheriff must be a registered peace officer or a certified peace officer. Any person who is not a registered or certified peace officer at the time such person assumes the office of sheriff shall be required to complete satisfactorily the requirements for certification within six months after such person takes office.

O.C.G.A. § 15-16-1 (c)(1)(J)

Notes:

- a) Members of the United States armed forces on terminal leave are generally eligible for employment/certification as peace officers in Georgia, but O.C.G.A. § 45-2-1 prohibits members of the armed forces from holding civil office. Such a person could serve as a police officer, but not as sheriff. Op. Atty. Gen. 89-30.
 - b) To hold the office of sheriff, even as an interim appointment, an appointee must seek certification as a peace officer as required under O.C.G.A. § 15-16-1 or get a waiver as prescribed under the same code section. Op. Atty. Gen. n96-14.
9. Each candidate for the office of sheriff must, within 60 days prior to or at the time he or she qualifies;
- a) file with the officer before whom he or she has qualified to seek the office of sheriff a certified copy of his or her birth certificate and a certified copy of his or her high school diploma or certified proof of its recognized equivalent in educational training as established by the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training Council; and
 - b) swear or affirm before the officer before whom such person has qualified to seek the office of sheriff that he or she has met, meets, or will meet no later than the close of qualifying, all of the required qualifications.

13. A candidate for sheriff must pay a qualification fee or file a pauper's affidavit.

O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-131, 21-2-132, 21-2-153

Annotations:

- i. If a candidate is unable to pay required qualifying fee, candidate may execute a pauper's affidavit in lieu of qualifying fee and be afforded the opportunity to run. Op. Atty. Gen. 72-48. See Georgia Socialist Workers Party v. Fortson, 315 F. Supp. 1035 (N.D. Ga. 1970).

14. No person shall be nominated, nor shall any person be a candidate in a primary, election, or special election for more than one of the following public offices to be filled at any one election or special election: Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Attorney General, State School Superintendent, Commissioner of Insurance, Commissioner of Agriculture, Commissioner of Labor, United States Senator or Representative in Congress, Public Service Commissioner, Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, members of the Senate and House of Representatives of the General Assembly, judge of superior court, district attorney, any elected county officer, and any elected municipal officer.

O.C.G.A. § 21-2-136

15. Eligibility of write-in candidate:

- a) No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a special or general primary, a special or general primary runoff, or in a special or general election runoff.
- b) No person shall be eligible as a write-in candidate in a general or special election if such person was a candidate for nomination or election to the same office in the immediately preceding primary.
- c) No person elected on a write-in vote shall be eligible to hold office unless notice of his or her intention of candidacy was filed and published no earlier than January 1 and no later than the Tuesday after the first Monday in September prior to the election in the case of a general election or at least 20 or more days prior to a special election. In a general or special election of county officers,
 - i. notice must be filed with the superintendent of elections in the county in which the person is to be a candidate and published in the official organ of the same county by the person giving notice of intention to be a write-in candidate or by some other person or group of persons qualified to vote in the subject election; and

- d) The bond must be made payable to the Governor and his successor in office and conditioned upon faithful discharge of duties.

O.C.G.A. § 45-4-1

So help me God.”

O.C.G.A. § 15-16-4

Note:

So help me God."

O.C.G.A. § 48-5-101

15. Since the tax commissioner is also the tax collector, he or she must take, in addition to the oaths required of all civil officers, the following oath required of the tax collector as:

"I, _____, tax collector of the County of _____, do swear that I will faithfully discharge the duties required of me by law as tax collector, and that I will search out and make a true return of all defaulters, and all taxable property not found on the tax receiver's digest or not returned according to law, and that I will pay over all taxes collected by me, as required by law."

Upon the occurrence of a vacancy, the officer or body authorized to fill the vacancy or call for an election to fill the vacancy shall do so without the necessity of a judicial determination that a vacancy has occurred.

O.C.G.A. § 45-5-1

19. The Governor may vacate the commission of a defaulting tax commissioner for failing or refusing to do his or her duty, give bond, or take the oath required.

O.C.G.A. § 48-5-204

20. In the event of a vacancy in the office, the judge of the probate court must appoint a qualified person to discharge the duties until the vacancy is filled.

O.C.G.A. § 48-5-211

21. When a vacancy occurs and it is not more than six months from the time the election can be called by the county election superintendent and held until the existing term will expire, the person or persons appointed shall discharge the duties of the office for the balance of the term, and there shall be no special election. If a special election is required, the person elected shall hold the office for the unexpired term.

TAX RECEIVER / TAX COLLECTOR

This edition eliminates separate descriptions of the laws pertaining to the offices of tax receiver and tax collector. The Georgia Constitution authorizes counties to replace the tax receiver and the tax collector with a tax commissioner. All 159 counties in the state have done so, consolidating these offices into a single tax commissioner.

The qualifications and disqualifications for holding the offices of county tax receiver and county tax collector are identical under the law to those for the county tax commissioner, and state law provides for the same terms of office and manner of election for these three officials.

O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-138, 15-7-20

Annotations:

- i. The omission of the phrase “until his successor is qualified” in the 1983 Constitution does not prevent a legally qualified incumbent from remaining in office after his or her four-year term of office ends. Garcia v. Miller, 261 Ga. 531; 408 S.E. 2d 97 (1991).

Membership on any federal commission, panel, or other fact-finding or policy-making agency, where the appointment is temporary and the duties do not interfere materially with the person's duties as a public officer, shall not bar any person from holding office in this state or acceding to a state office.
 - d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
 - e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.

GA. Const. Art. 2, § 2, ¶ 3
O.C.G.A. §§ 45-2-1, 21-2-8

Cross-Reference:

“Public office” means every federal, state, county, and municipal office to which persons can be elected by a vote of the electors under the laws of this state or under the respective municipal charters, except the office of soil and water conservation officer. O.C.G.A. § 21-2-2 (30).

Each candidate is required to file an affidavit which states that he or she is eligible to hold the office for which he or she is running. See O.C.G.A. §§ 21-2-132 (e), 21-2-153 (e).

Annotations:

- i. To prevent persons convicted of certain crimes from holding office, the “conviction” must be a final one. There is no “conviction” within the constitutional provision if jury’s verdict has been set aside or is under review and thus subject to be set aside either by motion for new trial, bill of exceptions, or other appropriate procedures. Summerour v. Cartrett, 220 Ga. 31, 136 S.E.2d 724 (1964).
- ii. While pardon restores a person to full rights of citizenship, including the right to hold

- office, it does not operate to confer or restore public office previously held. Morris v. Hartsfield, 186 Ga. 171, 197 S.E. 251 (1938).
- iii. A convicted felon who has had his or her civil rights restored is eligible to vote and hold public office. Op. Atty. Gen. U77- 43.
 - iv. The conviction of the crime of “having liquor” does not render a person disqualified from holding public office if at the time of commission such crime carried only misdemeanor punishment. Op. Atty. Gen. 67-26.
 - v. Examples of crimes which always involve moral turpitude were pointed out in Johnson v. Riley, 13 Ga. 97, 131(2) (1853); Holloway v. Holloway, 126 Ga. 459, 460 (1), 55 S.E. 191 (1906) (murder); Ng Sui Wing v. United States, 46 F.2d 755 (7th Cir. 1931) (statutory rape); United States ex rel. Volpe v. State, 1998 WL 69072 (false imprisonment). However, moral turpitude was found not to be involved in the following crimes: Curry v. State, 17 Ga. App. 312, 86 S.E. 742 (1915) (fighting); United States ex rel. Andreacchi v. Curran, 38 F.2d 498 (S.D.N.Y. 1926) (carrying a concealed weapon); *Groves v. App. 279, 25 S.E.2d 850 (1993) (misdemeanor criminal trespass).
 - vi. Any citizen and taxpayer of a community or the state may challenge qualifications of public officials to hold office in that community or the state. Such a person has standing to bring a quo warranto action claiming that a public official is ineligible to hold the office. Highsmith v. Clark 245 Ga. 158, 264 S.E.2d 1 (1980).
 - vii. A potential candidate who completed his sentence for conviction of a felony prior to the enactment of the 1990 amendment to this paragraph did not have any vested rights to seek office. Constitutional amendment prescribing ineligibility to hold office for 10 years after the completion of the sentence applies retroactively. Eligibility to hold public office is determined by the statutory and constitutional requirements in effect on the date of election. McIntyre v. Miller, 236 Ga. 578, 436 S.E.2d 2 (1993).
 - viii. The 1990 constitutional amendment requiring that potential candidates fulfil a 10-year waiting period following completion of a sentence for conviction of a felony involving moral turpitude does not violate the principal of double jeopardy. McIntyre v. Miller, 236 Ga. 578, 436 S.E.2d 2 (1993).
 - ix. The 1990 constitutional amendment does not preempt the enforcement of other qualifications for office that may provide for the temporary suspension from office where no felony conviction exists. Eaves v. Harris, 258 Ga. 1, 364 S.E.2d 854 (1988).

- x. An indictment alone would not disqualify a person as a candidate for public office. Op. Atty. Gen. U68-102.
- xi. Where a potential candidate has been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude, pardon or restoration of civil rights is necessary to hold any office or appointment of honor or trust even if the sentence has been completed. Op. Atty. 83-33.
- xii. A person seeking to hold any office or appointment of honor and trust in this state must meet the eligibility requirements as set forth in Ga. Const. Art. 2, § 2, ¶ 3, as amended by the 1990 amendment. Op. Atty. Gen. 92-3.
- xiii. A candidate who registers to vote only after his or her qualification for office and the closing of the qualifications process is not legally qualified to run for office. Op. Atty. Gen. U92-14.

24. Suspension and removal from office upon felony indictment or conviction:

- a) Upon indictment for a felony by a grand jury of this state, which felony relates to the performance or activities of the indicted official, state law provides a means by which such official may be suspended, with pay, pending the final disposition of the case or until the expiration of the official's term of office, whichever occurs first.
- b) Upon initial conviction for any felony in a trial court of this state or the United States, the convicted official shall be immediately and without further action suspended from office without pay.
- c) Upon final conviction of a felony, the office shall be vacated immediately without further action. Said vacancy shall be filled in the manner provided by law for filling vacancies in such office caused by death or resignation.

GA. Const. Art. 6, § 7, ¶ 7

Membership on any federal commission, panel, or other fact-finding or policy-making agency, where the appointment is temporary and the duties do not interfere materially with the person's duties as a public officer, shall not bar any person from holding office in this state or acceding to a state office.
- d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
- e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.

20. The county treasurer may be removed from office by the judge of the superior court for any sufficient cause, including incapacity or misbehavior in office. Failure of a county treasurer to render an accounting of county funds upon request of the county governing authority will result in suspension of the treasurer and appointment of a temporary treasurer pending removal.

O.C.G.A. §§ 36-6-24, 15-6-82

O.C.G.A. § 36-5-22

Annotations:

- ii. Any attempt to confer “executive powers” on the office of county manager would be an “action affecting the form of the county governing authority” in violation of Georgia Constitution, Art. 9, § 3, ¶ 1. Gray v. Dixon, 249 Ga. 159, 289 S.E.2d 237 (1982).
- iii. *A board of commissioners may transfer the authority to hire, supervise, and fire employees from the chairman to itself and hire an administrative assistant for the board without affecting the office of chairperson or the form of county government in violation of the constitution or state laws. If a person leaves the place of his domicile temporarily, or for a particular purpose, and does not take up an actual residence elsewhere with the avowed intention of making a change in his domicile, he will not be considered as having changed his domicile. Haggard v. Graham, 142 Ga. App. 498, 236 S.E.2d 92 (1977).

3. Must possess acceptable business or management experience as specified by the Professional Standards Commission or the minimum valid certificate or letter of eligibility for such certificate as required by the Professional Standards Commission.

O.C.G.A. § 20-2-104

Annotation:

The bond of county school superintendent is an official bond and, when conditioned upon faithful discharge of duties of his office, is for the benefit of any person injured. Citizens Bank of Colquitt v. American Surety Co. of New York, 174 Ga. 852, 164 S.E. 817 (1932)

 - c) is otherwise qualified to hold said office according to the constitution and laws of Georgia; and
 - d) will support the constitutions of the United States and of this state.

O.C.G.A. § 20-2-103

The official acts of an officer are valid regardless of his or her omission to take and file the oath, except in cases where so specially declared. See O.C.G.A. § 45-3-10.

9. A loyalty oath, which must state that such person will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of Georgia and is not a member of the Communist Party, is required for all persons who are employed by and are on the payroll of school districts and local educational systems throughout the entire state.

- i. See Georgia Conference of Am. Ass'n. of University Professors v. Bd. of Regents of University System of Ga., 246 F. Supp. 553 (N.D. Ga. 1965), limiting the coverage of the loyalty oath.
- ii. The portion of the Georgia loyalty oath which requires one to swear to support the constitutions of Georgia and the United States is valid, and that portion of the oath which requires disavowal of membership in the Communist Party is unconstitutional and should not be administered. Op. Atty. Gen. 85-19.

Vacancies in and Succession to Office

10. At any time during the 12 months immediately preceding expiration of a superintendent's contract or when a vacancy otherwise occurs, the local board of education may appoint and employ a successor notwithstanding that the terms of some or all board members will expire before the employment of the superintendent begins.

O.C.G.A. § 20-2-101

General Disqualifications

11. The following persons are ineligible to hold any civil office, and the existence of any of the following acts shall be a sufficient reason for vacating any office held by such person, but the acts of such person, while holding a commission, shall be valid as the acts of an officer de facto, namely:

- a) Persons who are not citizens of this state and persons under the age of 21 years, provided, however, that upon passage of appropriate ordinances, citizens of this state who are otherwise qualified and who are 18 years old shall be eligible to hold any county or municipal office, other than a judicial office.

- d) Persons of unsound mind and persons who, from advanced age or bodily infirmity, are unfit to discharge the duties of the office to which they are chosen or appointed.
- e) Persons who are not registered and qualified voters entitled to vote.
- f) Persons who have been convicted of a felony involving moral turpitude, unless that person's civil rights have been restored and at least 10 years have elapsed from the date of the completion of the sentence without a subsequent conviction of another felony involving moral turpitude.
- g) Persons who are constitutionally disqualified for any cause.

Ga. Const. Art. 2, § 2, ¶ 3

O.C.G.A. § 45-2-1

Annotations:

- i. *To prevent persons convicted of certain crimes from holding office, the "conviction" must be a final one. There is no "conviction" within the constitutional provision if jury's verdict has been set aside or is under review and thus subject to be set aside either by motion for new trial, bill of exceptions, or other appropriate procedures.
