

Cherokee Regional Library Care and Repair of Computers

Only those who have been specifically authorized by the Cherokee Regional Library administration may repair the computers, remove the outer casing of the computers, change settings on the software, disconnect, change the wiring arrangements, load or delete software, or in any other way alter or adjust the computers in any of the libraries in the Cherokee Regional Library System.