Police Officers Investigate Possible Burglary at Mansfield Head Start

Mansfield Police Department officers received a complaint on Friday, September 17, of a possible break in at the Mansfield Head Start at 115 Richards Street in Mansfield. When an officer arrived at the school, he discovered suspect(s) had gained entry through the back door of two metal buildings on the property. The officer discovered two broken desks and it appeared the building had been ransacked.

Also reported missing:

- Two (2) complete DELL desktop computers valued at $500 each.
- One (1) 13” Zenith TV valued at $100 each.
- Symphonic DVD Player valued at $50
- Emerson DVD player valued at $50
- Pentax Camera Mod#PC33
- Olympus Model D-535 Camera valued at $148.32

Captain Gary Hobbs, of the Mansfield Police Department said citizens with information about the theft are urged to call Mansfield Crime Stoppers’ line at 318-872-8888 or contact the Criminal Investigations Division of the Mansfield Police Department at 318-872-0520. All calls are confidential.
