Officers arrest suspect connected to recent string of burglaries

Mansfield Police Officers make an arrest that they believe will bring an end to a string of recent burglaries in the City.

In less than a month, officers have responded to:

- three (3) separate calls to a vehicle burglary on Oxford Road (Aug.10,17,31)
- one report of a vehicle burglary on the parking lot at Radio Shack, (09/02/10)
- a home invasion on Line Street – where suspect had taken a shower and food (08/28/10)
- two additional attempted vehicle burglaries at Radio Shack, (09/04/10)

After a lengthy investigation, on Sunday, 09/05/10 police officers arrested, Michael Campbell, black male, 17, of the 800 block of Gibbs Street, and charged him with five (5) counts of simple burglary and two (2) counts of attempted simple burglary. Mansfield Police Department Captain Gary Hobbs said officers brought Campbell into the police station for questioning, and he gave officers investigating the cases, a taped statement admitting to the burglaries and attempted burglaries.
