MPD seek assistance in physical and sexual assault case

MANSFIELD, Louisiana – The Mansfield Police Department is currently investigating an assault case that occurred at approximately 10:20 p.m. on Tuesday, June 19, in the 1400 block of Regina Street.

The victim, a seventy-six year old female, had arrived home and was removing items from her vehicle when she was attacked and physically assaulted, while being forced into her home. A struggle and altercation continued inside the home where the victim appears to have been sexually assaulted.

The suspects are described as three African-American males. Two of the suspects were wearing black pants, one with a white shirt, and the other was not wearing a shirt.

This case remains under investigation. Police are seeking the public's help in solving this crime and urging anyone with information to call the Mansfield Police Department Crime Stoppers' line at (318) 872-8888 or the Mansfield Police Department- Investigations Division at (318) 872-0520. All calls are confidential. The Mansfield Police Department will offer a reward of $1,000 for information that results in the suspects arrest.
