3 arrested in Hendrix business burglaries

MANSFIELD, Louisiana – A joint investigation by the Mansfield Police Department and the DeSoto Parish Sheriff's Office has led to the arrests of Johnathan D. Mustin, Warren L. Inman, and Danny C. Wilkins, all of Pelican in the recent business burglaries of Hendrix Manufacturing.

The suspects were reported entering the Hendrix location three times within the past two months. Inman and Wilkins were arrested on July 24 and Mustin was arrested on July 25. All three suspects were booked into the DeSoto Parish Detention Center on three counts of simple burglary of business each.

The damage sustained and stolen items from the property totaled thousands of dollars.
