Re: Employee theft from local Business

On Thursday, June 06, 2014 Mansfield Crime Stoppers received a tip of thefts that had been occurring at the Quick Change Lube, located on Washington Avenue. The company owner was contacted, and in a joint venture with the Mansfield Police Department, the suspects were observed committing the theft.

On Friday, June 7, 2014 the Mansfield Police responded to quick change lube to a report of a theft in progress. Upon arrival one of the suspects had left the scene, but was quickly apprehended a short distance from the business with several cases of stolen Merchandise in the vehicle. Arrested and charged with principal to theft over five hundred dollars was Gabriel Waddles, 30 year old black male of Longstreet, and James Paddie, 24 year old white male of Mansfield.
