

City of Somerville

---

ELECTION UPDATE

Texas Governor Greg Abbot issued a proclamation on March 18th that would allow local elections to be postponed until November due to the coronavirus outbreak.

A special called meeting was held by the City Council of Somerville on Monday, March 23rd to discuss and take action on a proposal to move the city elections until November 3rd.

After consideration City Council approved the postpone of the City's May elections until November.

All candidates will retain their position of the ballot.

City of Somerville

---

To: Candidates for City Alderman

Texas Governor Greg Abbot issued a proclamation on March 18th that would allow local elections to be postponed until November due to the coronavirus outbreak.

A special called meeting was held by the City Council of Somerville on Monday, March 23rd to discuss and take action on a proposal to move the city elections until November 3rd.

After consideration City Council approved the postpone of the City's May elections until November.

All candidates will retain their position of the ballot.

Sincerely,

Danny Segundo
City Administrator
City of Somerville