Information for Family and Friends

The Prison Rape Elimination Act, 2003 (PREA) is a Federal Law that was signed into law by President George W. Bush in 2003. The law was created to address the problem of sexual misconduct within confinement facilities.

National PREA standards to prevent, detect, and respond to sexual abuse and sexual harassment was released by the Department of Justice in 2012.

PREA prohibits sexual misconduct in correctional facilities such as prisons, jails, lock-ups, and juvenile facilities.

CCLEC has ZERO TOLERANCE for all forms of sexual conduct between inmates and staff, volunteers, contractors, or other inmates.

CCLEC will investigate all allegations of sexual misconduct in a fair, professional, and confidential manner. All CCLEC staff, volunteers, and contractors receive education on our zero-tolerance policy on how to report sexual misconduct.

All victims of sexual assault will be provided medical and mental health care.

Perpetrators of sexual assault will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

Consensual acts of sex between inmates and staff does not exist.

Consensual acts of sex between inmates housed at the Cloud County Law Enforcement Center are against facility rules.
