Dougherty County Public Library

Materials Donation Policy

The Dougherty County Public Library welcomes donations of new and used books, audiobooks, and DVDs. The Library does not catalog or lend the following materials: albums, cassettes, music compact discs, VHS tapes, textbooks, magazines, and encyclopedias. The Library reserves the right to decide the disposition of all gifts received. Gifts accepted for addition to the Library's collection become the property of the Dougherty County Public Library and will be placed where most appropriate. The Library reserves the right to donate, sell, or otherwise dispose of materials not added to the Library’s collection. Proceeds from materials sold at Library book sales are used in support of our mission, enhance library programs and collection development.
