How Can You Help?

Become a member! Join our efforts to support a library system that is responsive to the needs of Dougherty County residents.

Volunteer Your Time

The Friends are looking for people who are passionate about libraries and what they can do to transform a community.

We Need Your Help

Become a part of our newly reinstated Friends of the Dougherty County Public Library. As a Friend you'll have the opportunity to add to library services with funds, energy, and time.

Who We Are

The Friends of the Dougherty County Public Library is a non-profit volunteer organization that provides the support needed to maintain a vibrant and modern library system.

What We Do

- Purchase equipment and supplies
- Advocate on behalf of the library
- Help with book sales
- Generate funding through grants, donations, and fundraising activities
