- ✓ Operational base and primary Southern California Headquarters for the California Army National Guard (CA ARNG).
- ✓ If mobilized, more than 5,000 military and civilian personnel would assemble at JFTB.
- ✓ Continues to serve a vital military function, but JFTB also serves as the Southern Region Headquarters of the California Office of Emergency Services.

GATEWAY CITIES
COUNCIL OF GOVERNMENTS

- ✓ In Office of Emergency Services role, JFTB will be the entry point for personnel and materials in the event of a regional emergency.
- ✓ JFTB possesses the only active military runway between Santa Barbara County (Vandenberg AFB) and San Diego County (Miramar NAS) that is able to accommodate large transport aircraft – the type needed for personnel and supply delivery after a large earthquake/disaster/disturbance.

- ✓ Air Force One, tactical fighters, rotorcraft and military transports have regularly flown in and out of JFTB Los Alamitos.
- ✓ However, the main runway (4R – 22L) is broken and in need of immediate repair.
- ✓ We, and our neighboring cities, have begun the process to obtain the federal funding necessary to effect permanent repairs to this main runway at JFTB.
