

Houston County Public Library System Court Mandated Community Service

Approved by HOUPL Board of Trustees 2018 May 11

Adults who have court ordered community service hours to complete can request to complete the hours at the Houston County Public Libraries. The library is not obligated to provide any or all of the community service hours needed by an applicant. All adults must present a recent (no older than one week) criminal background check from either the Houston County Sheriff's office or the Perry Police Department before starting service hours.
