

Maine State law that pertains to animals being on other's property, including state, county and municipal roads.

Paragraph 3, section C., the animal control officer (which essentially is the PD) would need to receive 5 or more complaints in a 30-day period or 3 or more complaints in a 7-day period to be in violation of this law.

It's also important to note, if a person is found to be in violation, a $50 to $500 fine is imposed by the courts for a 1st offense.
2nd offense is a $1000 fine
3 or more offenses is $2,500 in fines.
