Welcome to Summer!

From the Editor

Welcome to summer at your Southwest Georgia Regional Library System! It is getting hot outside, so cool off by visiting your library! The Southwest Georgia Regional Library System has many fantastic programs going on this summer. For adults, engaging book discussions at the Miller County—James W. Merritt, Jr. Memorial Library and the Seminole County Public Library will keep you talking about some juicy characters this summer. Read below for all the details.

There are plenty of activities to keep your young people busy this summer! The Southwest Georgia Regional Library System is excited to bring you another Vacation Reading Program. The children's theme is, "Dream Big—READ". Turn to the next page to find out more about the children's Vacation Reading Program, designed for children up to age 11. The Teen Vacation Reading Program is for ages 12—18 and the theme is, "Own the Night". More information on the Teen Vacation Reading Program is available on page 7.

Prepare to have a blast this summer at the library by taking advantage of the many activities!
