Motion was made by Kathy to accept the financial report. The motion was seconded by Barb and passed unanimously.

Brent presented the proposed budget for year 2016-2017. Due to traffic increase in the library by 16% the operating cost has increased by 10%. The e-rate income has been decreased from $2904.00 per year to $1000.00.
The total projected income for the fiscal year is $ 124,323.04 with expenses projected at $ 128,715.32.
This would leave a deficit of 4,392.32 in the budget at this time.
Brent moved to approve the budget.
Building and Ground Committee:
   Issues found during the fire marshal inspection are in the process of being corrected. New evacuation signs have been completed and quotes from Fire Alarm Monitoring companies reviewed. Brent proposed to use US Alarms of Georgia to install and monitor the system. The cost for the system is $4,611.00 with a $40.00 monthly monitoring fee. Motion to accept the proposal was made by Brent. Amy seconded the motion and it was unanimously accepted.

Library Manager’s Report:
   Tammy reported on the summer reading program: The program was a great success, with 155 readers registered, 109 reading logs turned in and 469 visitors in a single day. A total of 10 volunteers logged 180 hours. The library also initiated an outreach program with migrant workers and their children for a three week period on Mondays. The program offered games and reading to 71 registered participants. WTOC news visited and reported on the summer program twice. Dollar General made a $100.00 donation to the reading program. The BOE made a one-time donation to the library and the funds were used to purchase six Google Chrome Books and new Lego sets. The old sets were donated to Hog Hammond on Sapelo Island. Tammy recommended changing the library opening hours to better serve the community. The proposed hours were:
   MO – TH from 10am to 8pm
   FR from 10am to 6pm
   SAT from 10am to 2pm
