Unfinished Business

- 2022 Grant Application:
 - We will miss the deadline date to renew the Parks & Recreation Plan. Will work towards applying in 2023.
 - Work session scheduled for Tuesday January 31, 2022 at the Village Hall.
- Carver Park:
 - Tabled to Spring of 2022: Pavilion beams re-shellacked as regular maintenance.
 - Holiday lighting in park. Further discussion tabled to March 7, 2022 meeting.
- Chamberlain Path:
 - Sculptures sourcing: tabled. Reach out to Steve Laqatuda and Krasl Art Center for possible additions.
- Dewey Cannon:
 - Dewey Cannon Park task force, consisting of Kramer, Clements and Brown will meet prior to the joint meeting on February 3rd. Will report to board.
 - ACC plaque development in process.
- Dillard Park:
 - Dan will ask DPW to check on location of the trash receptacle.
- Warren Plaza:
 - No discussion
- Watkins Park:
 - Pavilion
 - Shawver indicates the Rotary Club of Harbor Country will discuss 'adoption' of the Pavilion maintenance at their July meeting.
 - Electrical outlet for lighting: Les Wycoff of the pickle ball club requested lighting in the pavilion so that play could be extended.
Motion by Kramer to recommend to council the addition of a locked outlet in the pavilion for lighting. Seconded by Carroll, motion passed.

- Township Report
 - No report
- Signage:
 - (new and replaced signage in the Parks concerning open containers, glass containers and other standard guidelines) Ream will provide information and ideas used by Chikaming. Signs should include use of open flame devices following discussion of mini propane/butane burners seen in 2021.
- Vandalism of Little Free Libraries situated in parks.
 - Friends of the Library agree that if vandalism continues on the library in Watkins Park that it should be removed. Would appreciate if the DPW could do this.

New Business: no new business

Manager Comments:

- Informed that the Viaduct's load limit has been lowered. The replacement grant is 95/5%.
- Feasibility study of Lagoon alternatives underway.
