

SELECTMEN'S MEETING SUMMARY
June 6, 2012

Prior to the weekly selectmen's meeting Don and Duane met with Wayne Miller, Eric Hedberg, and Bryan Gess to discuss the condition of the Lincoln Road where all three are residents. Several proposals were discussed and the determination what to do will be reached at a future meeting in consultation with the road commissioner.

The weekly selectmen's meeting was called to order at 7:00 pm by Selectman Duane Vigue with Selectmen Donald Grinnell also present. Selectman Wesley Daniel was absent.

The summary of the May 30, 2012, selectmen's meeting was approved as written.

The selectmen voted unanimously to approve a payroll warrant totaling $4,897.51 and an accounts payable warrant in the amount of $11,693.64.

Frank Jones, Jr., Road Commissioner, was absent and had no written report.

Robert Temple, Code Enforcement Officer was present but had no written report.

Liane Chapmen, representing the Gibbs Library, was recognized and informed the board of the Gibbs Library Board of Directors decision to have patio lights installed on the new patio by electrician Jim Brann at a cost of $1776. The cost will be borne by the library. The selectmen voted to approve the concept plan.

The selectmen voted unanimously to approve property tax abatements for two tax acquired properties. The abatements were to clear the overdue taxes from the delinquent tax tolls which will allow the properties to be sold. The first abatement was in the amount of $1,047.52 on property at 21 Nelson Ridge Road. The second abate was in the amount of $2,541.73 for property at 623 Liberty Road.

Clayton Lanphier, animal control officer, had asked the selectmen to approve an expenditure of $200 from the animal control fund to the Lincoln County Animal Shelter for the shelter's spay and neutering program. The selectmen voted unanimously to approve the request.

Duane reported that he had received a complaint from Sharon Little on the Hopkins Road about the timing of culvert replacement on her driveway which caused her to miss a medical appointment. Duane apologized to Mrs. Little on behalf of the town

The consolidated bids for bulk road salt have been received by Knox County and forwarded to the town for action. A decision will be made next week.

With no additional business to come before the board, the selectmen adjourned at 7:46 pm.
