Public Works Report:

5/21 – Two men put surface on Mountain Road – One man worked pit.

5/22 – Two men put surface on Lenfest Road and Prescott Road – One man worked pit.

5/23 – Two men put surface on Medolark and Nelson Ridge Road & cleaned up monument.

5/24 – Took water pump out of backhoe and chipped brush.

CEO Report:

Bob stated that the RV on Old County Road is illegal. He is writing a letter and took a couple of pictures for the Selectmen to see. He continues to follow-up on RV guidelines and regulations.

Bob continues to work with Melissa with the construction of the garage. They may need to postpone the meeting because of the June 12th election date.

He has been receiving calls about camp construction. Bob feels it is more productive if he meets with the owner so he can have a visual of work wanting to be done. He also explains the rules to the resident and they usually comes up with productive solution.

Town Clerk/Treasurers Report:

Mary stated she is waiting to hear from Washington Manor to do absentee voting.

Bank balance after the AP warrant is $340, 478.45.

Cemetery lots – Marr Cemetery:

Elizabeth Rhodes bought 10 lots. She would like to put all 10 lots on one deed.

Motion by: Wes Daniel to continue this process with any multiple lots that come forward.

2nd by: Tom Johnston

Power Broom (approx. 200.00 to get fixed):

The town power broom is in need of repair. Repairs would cost approximately $200.00, and may not be worth fixing. Question is whether to buy a new broom or pay for repairs? A new power broom would cost approximately $600.00.

Discussion: Tom asked if it is needed? Wes stated they are currently borrowing his personal broom.

Tom feels it is up to Jonathan.

Abatelements:

Wes stated that the abatelements have already been approved; abatelements were signed.

Questions and Comments:

Wes read a letter of complaint from Kelly Knowlton. She indicated her displeasure of the Transfer Station often being closed before the posted closing time. She feels that her tax dollars are being wasted.

Discussion: Wes indicated he spoke with Dave Stanley, and that Dave will follow through with the complaint.

Wes spoke with Andy Hart. Andy is currently looking into heating fuel prices, which are starting to go back down. He will let us know when the price levels out.
